Goodbye

We turn the page, the book complete.
Step into freedom; it seems so sweet.
Thirteen years gone by in a flash.
We used to talk of forever;
Now we're scared of tomorrow,
Not knowing yet where that might lead.
When the time comes to say goodbye,
Remember it's not the end.
Continue to be near through the memories shared.
Tears will be shed,Pride will fall down,
Enemies will put aside their differences
As we turn our tassels and lift our voices
Remember these words:
"Goodbye Doesn't Mean Forever."

Friends Through Time

Keeley Willis

In kindergarten, your idea of a good friend was the person who let you have the red crayon when all that was left was the ugly black one.
In First grade, your idea of a good friend is the person who went to the bathroom with you and held your hand as you walked through the scary halls.
In Second grade, your idea of a good friend is the person who helped you stand up to the class bully.
In Third grade, your idea of a good friend was the person who Shared their lunch with you when you forgot yours on the bus.
In Fourth grade, your idea of a good friend was the person who was willing to switch square dancing partners in gym so you would not have to be stuck DO-DI-DO-NG with Nasty Nicky or Smelly Susan.
In Fifth grade, your idea of a good friend was the person who saved a seat at the back of the bus for you.
In Sixth grade, your idea of a good friend was the person who went up to Nicky or Susan, your new crush, and asked them to dance with you, so if they said no you wouldn't have to be embarrassed.
In Seventh grade, your idea of a good friend was the person who let you copy the Social Studies homework from the night before.
In Eighth grade, your idea of a good friend was the person who helped you pack up your stuffed animals and that old base ball but did not did not laugh at you when you finished and broke out into tears.
In Ninth, your idea of a good friend was the person who would go to a party thrown by a senior so you would not wind up being the only freshman there.
In Tenth grade, your idea of a good friend was the person who changed his or her schedule so you would have someone to sit with at lunch.
In Eleventh grade, your idea of a good friend was the person who gave you rides in his or her new car, convinced your parents that you should not be grounded, consoled you when you broke up with Nick or Susan, and found you a date to prom.
In Twelth grade, your idea of a good friend was the person who helped you pick out a college, assured you would get into that college, helped you deal with your parents who were having a hard time adjusting to the idea of letting you go...
At graduation your idea of a good friend was the person who was crying on the inside but managed the biggest smile one could give as they congratulated you.
The summer after senior year your idea of a good friend was the person who helped you pack up for college and silently hugged you as you looked through blurry eyes at 18 years of memories you were leaving behind. Finally, on those last days of child hood, went out of his or her way to give you reassurance that you would make it in college knowing you were loved.
Now, your idea of a good friend is still the person who gives you the better of the two choices, holds your hand when you are scared, helps you fight off those who try to take advantage of you, thinks of you at times even when you are not there, reminds you what you have forgotten, helps you put the past behind you but understands when you need to hold on to it a little longer, stays with you so that you have confidence, goes out of their way to make time for you, helps you clear up your mistakes, helps you deal with pressure from others, smiles for you when they are sad, helps you become a better person, and most importantly loves you!

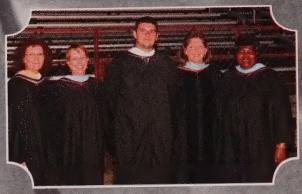
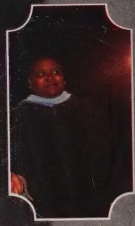
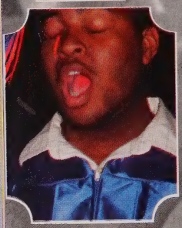
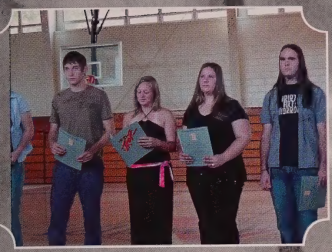
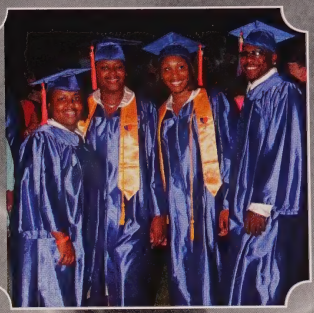
The Graduating Class of 2006

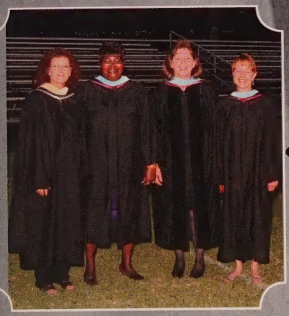












To all the laughs and tears
we've had all of these years
and that we've spent here
this is the end we all wanted
to hear our names called
as we walk across the field
but now we aren't so sure which path shall we take some of us doctors and nurses
some of us workers
others soldiers
but we will all look back on this day
and think with my friends by my side
We made it,
through the
...breakups
...detentions
...referrals
and more
we made through
Congratulations to the class of

Through the tears and the sweat
A life lesson Learned
The meaning of Pride forever will burn.
A few good people rose out of the ash,
We stand above the rest,
Were here to kick some brass
Trumpet stands ready
Flutes at alert
Percussion and brass the beat of our hearts
Flags twirling proudly this is the life
Nothing less in our minds suffice
Till the last note is played
And the last flag twirls
Forever we will stand

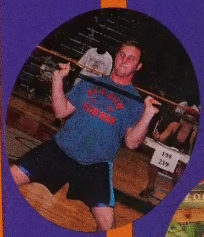
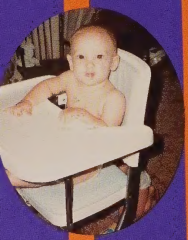
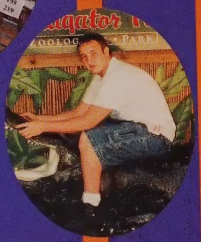
Summer







Steven,

To know you is to love you and we love you very much. We are blessed to be your parents. You have made us very proud. You have overcome many obstacles and accomplished great things to the glory of god. You have a sure foundation to build upon so go and be all that you can be. We are here for you and we will be with you all of the way. Son, we love you!

Love,

Momma and Daddy

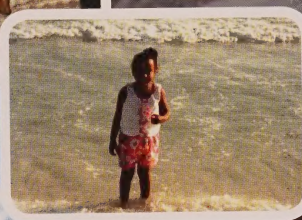
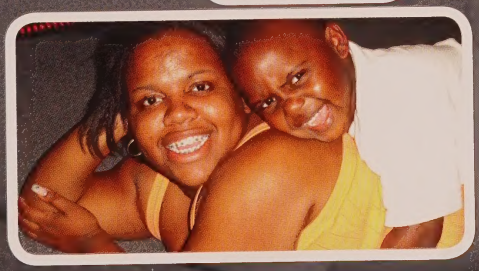
Audreanna Green





Audre, To our wonderful daughter, Grand-daughter, and sister. As we look back to the day you were in my arms, your first day of headstart, and the days we took you to school. We have so much fun and experienced a lot of things. Look at you now, ready to take on the world! Our baby is all grown up. There is a solid future ahead of you. We want you to know that we are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. The morals and values that you have learned and will treasure for the rest of your life will direct you down a positive path. Keep God first in your life! You are stepping out into a completely different world full of responsibilities, accountabilities and opportunities. Remember that we LOVE you and will always be here for you!

Love,
Dad, Mom, BJ and Nana

We Love you and Are Very Proud of You!!!

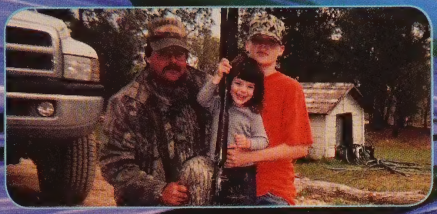
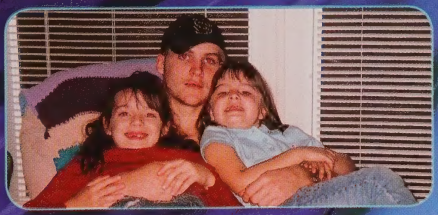
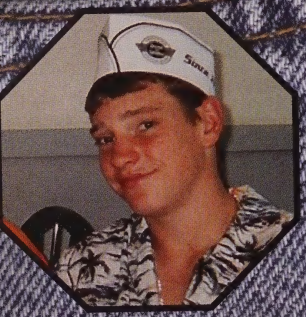
We are all very proud of you and Love you very much. Commit to the Lord Whatever You do, and your plans will Succeed. Proverbs 16:3

Dad, Mom,Mamaw, Joe, Lori, Makenzie, Madison, Rick, Rachel, Eriea and Jeremiah.

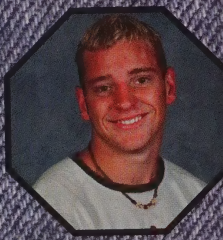




Jesse Dixon Hall



You are everything I hoped and prayed for. I am so very proud. I hope all your dreams come true. Let god lead you.
All My Love,
Mom



In Loving Memory of our dear friends
Rebecca "Becky" Baldry and John Rollins.
We will always have a Special Place in our Hearts
for our Guardian Angels.

To everything there is a season,
And a time to every purpose under the heavens.
A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to pluck
that which is planted;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to get, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.
